ABOUT US

reading room

PEACE AND COMFORT

A reading room is a quiet space where you can read and study.

"Located beside GMC Nagpur, we aspire to cater to the growing and rapidly evolving need to create and render study spaces which are peaceful and comfortable. We started of as a humble PG accommodation in our initial days dated back around mid 80's. In all these years with constant support of our service users, we have amalgamated such infrastructure wherein we are operating and functioning a library & PG accommodation simultaneously. We believe in designing and developing learning place that not only has conventional study room like aspect but also gives an informal aura that adds to its overall aesthetics. It's our continual endeavour to deliver most efficient and economical study environment with foremost supremacy without compromising on quality standards."
